

THE IMAGINARY FRIEND
AS-BROADCAST SCRIPT (TECHNICAL)

Scene Description	Time Code	Dialogue
INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY Inside the living room of an apartment building PETER(9) and SARAH(11) are fighting on a sofa.	00:00:54	PETER Scoot over.
	00:00:55	SARAH Stop it.
	00:00:56	PETER You're in my space.
	00:00:57	SARAH Ugh!
The GRANDDAD appears from another room.	00:01:00	GRANDDAD Hey! You guys just got here. You two are gonna have a lot more fun this weekend if you learn to get along. You are gonna turn your brains to mush.
Both Peter and Sarah are busy playing games on their phones.	00:01:13	SARAH Well, there is nothing to do and I'm bored.
	00:01:15	GRANDDAD How about reading a book?
	00:01:17	PETER No thanks.
Granddad grabs a book from the fireplace and take the children's phones.	00:01:21	GRANDDAD Alright. That is it. Give 'em here. Here we go. Hand 'em over. You can do without your phones for one night. You'll get 'em back in the morning.
	00:01:31	PETER So what are we gonna do all night?
	00:01:33	GRANDDAD Why don't we just enjoy each other's company? I remember when I was a boy, my grandfather used to tell me the most amazing stories. Ah, I really miss those days.
Granddad takes a seat as the children reluctantly listen.	00:01:49	SARAH What else was there to do?
	00:01:51	GRANDDAD Hmm. Well, I suppose you are not interested in